Resolution Approving Written
Appeals to Board of Review
City of Traverse City

- Whereas, the General Property Tax Law has allowed for non-resident taxpayers to make an appeal or protest to the Board of Review by letter and other supporting papers with no personal appearance required; and
- Whereas, the General Property Tax Law requiring the personal appearance of resident taxpayers by the taxpayer or his or her representative has been amended by Public Act 539 of 1982 to allow for the same opportunity to appeal by letter or other support papers if authorized by ordinance or resolution; now, therefore be it
- Resolved, that the convenience and equal opportunity to all taxpayers, the City Commission authorizes that an taxpayer may appear their property assessment to the Board of Review by letter and other supporting papers and no personal appearance shall be required.

I hereby certify that this is the true copy of a resolution adopted by the City Commission of the City of Traverse City at a regular meeting held on Monday, January 3, 1984.
